

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Joseph Edward Wojcicki, the Advocate for SCANA/SCE&G Scandal Victims, Appellant,

v.

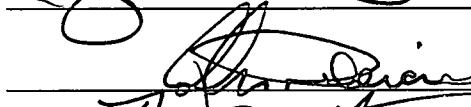

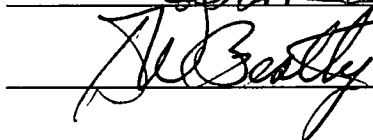

South Carolina Electric and Gas, South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff/Public Service Commission

Appellate Case No. 2014-002120

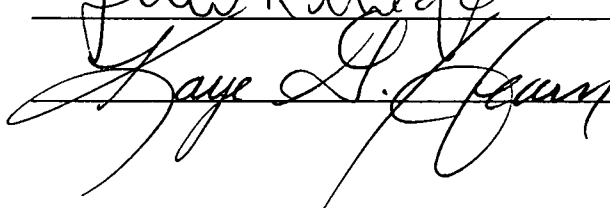

ORDER

By order dated December 11, 2014, the Court dismissed this appeal due to lack of proper service of the notice of appeal. The order further noted that even if the appeal was not dismissed for lack of proper service, it would be dismissed based on appellant's failure to comply with the requirements of Rule 208(b)(1), SCACR (setting forth requirements for initial brief of appellant). See Henning v. Kaye, 307 S.C. 436, 415 S.E.2d 794 (1992).

Appellant has now filed a "Memorandum with Necessary Comments/Arguments to the Court Order dated December 11, 2014. In the Matter of the Amended Initial Brief of Appellant." We have construed the documents as a petition for rehearing. After careful consideration of the documents, the Court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law was either overlooked or disregarded in the dismissal of the appeal, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.
